SUMMER SERMON SERIES - THE RELUCTANT SPOKESMAN. This series focuses on the story of Jonah and its application to our lives today. Next Sabbath Pastor Eric shares WHAT JONAH FORGOT. "Getting swallowed by a fish is a big deal and it's probably why we love and remember the story of Jonah, but it's hardly the only plot twist. I think the ending of the story is every bit as shocking as the part about the fish. Jonah was successful, and he was mad about it. Is it possible for us to become so comfortable in the blessings that God provides that we come to think of them as something we deserve instead of some incredible gift? Is it possible for us to forget what God has done for us to the point that we look at others and think they don't deserve what we've already received? If we step out and risk sharing the good news about Jesus with those who need to hear it, are we prepared for the results when they accept it for themselves?"

ANNUAL OUTDOOR GOSPEL CONCERT organized by Del & Bonnie Orser happens today at 6pm at the Stub Meyer Park (8309 W Montana, Rathdram, ID).
