WELCOME TO THE COEUR D'ALENE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

GUEST INFORMATION:

We are so glad you've chosen to come and worship here today! Below is some information to help you know more about what's available to assist you.

- We love children! We have some Activity and Coloring pages for them that are available on the table just inside the Sanctuary doors.
- Parents with Children, we understand it can be difficult for the little ones to sit for all of the service. If it becomes more comfortable to step out with your child, we have parents' rooms in the back of the sanctuary. You may enter from either the left or the right.
- There is closed circuit TV in the mothers' room on the left side.
- Please visit our website at www.cdaadventist.org
 - We broadcast our service live each Saturday morning and keep archives in case you missed a message
 - Bulletins are posted weekly
- Come follow us at www.facebook.com/cdaadventist.
- If you lost something here, you may find it at the lost and found behind the drinking fountain. Items left over 2 weeks will be donated for you.
- We have Connect Cards in the pews to provide or update your information, make comments, request a pastoral visit and more. Place these in the offering plates or leave them at our church office.
- If you would like to know more about Jesus through Bible study or want to know more about this church family, please speak to one of our pastors, greeters, stop by the church office, or mark a Connect Card found in the pew backs.

Thank you for your faithful giving

CHURCH LIFE AND MINISTRIES

WELCOME TO WORSHIP! We are very happy to worship with you as a community of Jesus-seekers and followers. We pray that today you will experience Jesus and discover how much He loves you.

NOW THAT'S PECULIAR: "to make a difference you have to be different" is the theme for the new sermon series for the next 4 weeks. Pastor Eric gives us a glance at today's and next week's message:

September 22 - Peculiar People

Most people don't want to be thought of as weird, but everybody wants to be special in some way. So if someone called you 'peculiar' you'd want to know what they mean. Peculiar is exactly what God calls His people, so what does that mean for Seventh-day Adventist Christians in the 21st century? Adventists have certainly developed some peculiar habits and beliefs over the years. Is God really telling us we're supposed to dress, eat, act and believe in strange ways? If we're called to make a difference in this world, how different do I have to be to do it?

September 29 - Identity Politics

Tribalism is on the rise again in America. So say an increasing number of political commentators as they struggle to make sense of our current social and political landscape. Perhaps its just bleeding over from our religious life. We've always been pretty tribal when it comes to God. And just like any other tribe, Seventh-day Adventists have a whole host of ways we mark our tribe. What you wear, how you adorn yourself (or don't), what you eat (or don't), what you watch (or at least where you watch it) have been the tattoos and war paint unique to our tribe. How did all these standards develop? Are they still relevant? Could there be a brand new message for the Adventism and the world when it comes to identity politics?
