

God is our refuge and strength [Mighty and impenetrable]
 A very present and well proved help in trouble
 There we will not fear, though the earth should change
 And though the mountains be shaken and slip into the heart of the seas.
 Though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble as its roaring. Selah

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
 The holy dwelling places of the Most High.
 God is in the midst of her [His city], she will not be moved
 God will help her when the morning dawns.

The nations made an uproar, the kingdoms tottered and were moved,
 He raise His voice, the earth melted.
 The Lord of Hosts is with us,
 The God of Jacob is our stronghold [our refuge, our high tower] Selah

Come, behold the works of the Lord
 Who has brought desolations and wonders on the earth
 He makes wars to cease to the end of the earth

He breaks the bow into pieces and snaps the spear in two.
 He burns the chariots with fire.

"Be still, and know [recognize, understand] that I am God

*I will be exalted among the nations!
 I will be exalted in the earth."*

The Lord of hosts is with us
 the God of Jacob is our stronghold [our refuge, our strong tower]. Selah

COEUR D'ALENE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH

AS YOU HAVE MOST LIKELY HEARD by now, because of our caution to do what we can to slow the spread of the coronavirus, our on-site worship services are closed until we know it is safe for us to gather together again. We hold great value the importance for having the opportunity for us to still keep our community connected and especially for worship, even if in a different way.

Today's service was prerecorded this week and is available Sabbath morning at:

www.cdaadventist.org

www.facebook.com/cdaadventist

Other options for Sabbath worship for your to consider:

- Loma Linda University: www.lluc.org/live
- Andrews University: www.pmchurch.org/live
- 3ABN if you have satellite or Roku

Happy Sabbath! We are so glad we can worship God together -- even while we are apart

Dear Upper Columbia Conference family,

We face uncharted and unprecedented times, due to the COVID-19 virus. Each day our medical professionals are giving us new guidance on how best to navigate these waters. Today, the White House is recommending groups of no more than 10 people gather together.

Decisive action is needed to protect those who are most at risk. This includes the difficult decision of suspending all church services in the Upper Columbia Conference, beginning March 21, with services possibly resuming on April 18, 2020.

As the virus continues to spread, your health and safety are extremely important to us. Due to the impact of the virus, the Upper Columbia Conference administrative offices in Spokane and College Place, Washington will be closed to the public. Even though we are closed to outside visitors, our departments will still be accessible by phone and email as we work remotely beginning March 17, 2020, until April 13, 2020. This date is subject to change in the future, based on government recommendations. Additionally, guidance from the North American Division recommends that we also cancel all work-related travel (both foreign and domestic), as well as church-sponsored events. The ABC Bookstore will remain open during this time.

With services suspending, our individual worship and family worship becomes that much more important. Stay close to God during these times. Rely on Him and encourage others.

This challenge may very well be an opportunity to bring us all closer to the Lord than ever before. Without assembly, we must do all that we can to care for our most vulnerable, while at the same time preparing each other for the Lord's soon return.

Just as Mordecai said to Esther, we all may have been put here for "such a time as this." Checking in with a neighbor, friend or family member just may give you that opportunity to bring One More to Him.

Please stay safe and healthy. May God protect our UCC family.

Do you need assistance or help?

Please call us! Call 208-699-2699 or 208-664-5473. We have people who are willing and able to help. They can run errands, go grocery shopping, pick up prescriptions, and more.

We can come together and be stronger because our strength comes from trusting in God and loving as he does.

FROM MAX LUCADO: "We find ourselves in a sober moment. These are uncertain times around the world and fears are rising. People who have never felt anxious before are suddenly weighed down with worry and are not sure what to do next.

Do you need encouragement right about now? Are you feeling anxious and uncertain? Do you find yourself in a season of isolation as events cancel, schools shift online, and churches close their doors to large gatherings?"

When I need to stay calm, I turn to this Scripture:

'Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.' (Phil 4:6-7, NIV)."

Max Lucado is offering a timely FREE online Bible study: Anxious for Nothing Online Bible Study – starting Sunday, March 22, we will be offering a free online Bible study based on the book Anxious for Nothing. We share this with you because it is our prayer that this study provides practical help for all of us as we seek to entrust our fears to God. The five-week study will conclude on April 25. If you would like to join go to <http://bit.ly/2Wcdjll>. The site includes free downloads for the study. (You can also buy resources, but purchasing isn't necessary for the study.)

"But God did not give me a spirit of fear, but power, love, and a sound mind."

2 Timothy 1:7

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your request to God.

Philippians 4:6

"Father, help me develop such inner strength and peace that I can handle every situation in a way that represents You well to others. Thank you for giving me Your grace to keep a right attitude today. Amen"
