CROWDS FLOCK to Adventist Churches for Safety in Ukraine - Adventist Mission is preparing emergency funds to help Seventh-day Adventist churches in Ukraine care for hundreds of displaced people flocking to their premises for food, shelter, and transportation to safety. Ukrainian churches have been inundated with 50–100 people arriving at individual churches every night for help. Church members are handing out food, providing shelter, and giving people rides from hot spots to safe places or the border. Read more and learn how you can help at news.uccsda.org/SDAchurch322.

GIVING to AID AND RELIEF -If you’d like to help support aid and relief to the people affected by the crisis in Ukraine, you can give to this fund by marking today’s tithe envelope “Ukraine”. Or, you can give online at cdaadventist.org. Go to the World Offering section and use “Ukraine”
