Bill and Heidee Dick are going on a mission trip to Uganda! They leave mid-June. Bill was invited by OurGanda to build a metal gate for their community center. Then he was asked to teach local people how to weld in order to earn a living. Bill is hoping to solicit support for the tools and supplies OurGanda needs to start a very basic welding business. OurGanda just started a domestic violence prevention program last October. Because Heidi teaches about family violence prevention at Lewis-Clark State College, and has served as a court advocate, hospital advocate, and shelter advocate, they have invited her to come and work with their victim advocates, co-teach a couple's healthy relationship class, and collect information from local law enforcement, judges, probation officers, community leaders and members regarding their perception of domestic violence, and what they need to do to address it. If you find this to be something that you would personally like to support, please visit the link to give a tax-deductible donation: <https://ourganda.org/donate/> (donate at the link listed, not through your church giving)

SUMMER CELEBRATION - Summer days in N Idaho never last long enough - so we have learned to make the most of them. Come & worship with us and enjoy the best of your Sabbath summer days too! We begin Summer Celebration on July 1 with Outdoor Church at Ramsey Park, then through Aug 12, our worship services will begin with a full, but shorter, message, followed by our response to God’s Word through praise. That’s It! A powerful but shorter worship experience. Then go out and enjoy the sun & summer days with your family or spend time in fellowship with your friends. It’s going to be an awesome summer! **Sabbath school classes will still meet as normal, at 9:30am, preceded by Breakfast Connection at 9:00am.*
